

ABOUT THE BOOK

Gorillas using iPads, lemurs finger painting, squirrel monkeys blowing bubbles...these primates are pretty smart! Could you make the grade in Primate School? Learn how diverse the primate family is, and some of the ways humans are teaching new skills to their primate cousins. Author Jennifer Keats Curtis is once again working with organizations across the country to share fun facts about primates through this photo journal.

OTHER TITLES OF INTEREST

THE ANIMAL HELPERS SERIES

"I recommend this little book about how zoos serve as a means to protect and conserve various species of animals—especially those who are endangered and threatened."

-NSTA Recommends

"Animal Helpers looks at the many individuals that are needed to keep an aquarium running: aquarists, biologists, curators, and veterinarians. Clear crisp photographs show the peace of the underwater world."

-School Library Journal

"Future animal helpers of all sorts will be en-raptor-ed."

-Kirkus Reviews
