Let's go on an animal adventure....

and find out What's New at the Zoo? Author Suzanne Slade takes readers along on a wild ride as she introduces mother, father, and baby zoo creatures while practicing math along the way! Do you know what pandas feed their cubs? Or what penguins and their chicks do for fun? The imaginative illustrations of Joan Waites bring the zoo right into your own backyard as you join monkeys swinging in the trees and brown

"Educational purpose takes the front seat here, but rests lightly enough on the rhymed text and animal pictures to remain more a game than a chore." - Booklist

"This cheerful package of images and information delivers intellectual nourishment in the guise of a tasty treat for the eyes. It's a fun introduction to early math skills and basic animal facts."

- School Library Journal

The "For Creative Minds" educational section includes:

- How Many Animals Did You See at the Zoo?
- Adding it All Up—Fact Families
- Food for Thought

There are also "Related Websites," "Interactive Quizzes," and "Teaching Activities" on Arbordale Publishing's website, www.ArbordalePublishing.com, to help parents and educators expand the learning possibilities! Thanks to Mary Santilli, Presidential Award Recipient for Elementary Mathematics (CT 1991), for verifying the accuracy of the math information and to Ron Fricke, Deputy Director of the Toledo Zoo for verifying the accuracy of the animal information in the book.

About the Author and Illustrator

Suzanne Slade (What's New at the Zoo?, What's the Difference?, and Animals are Sleeping) is the author of over 60 books for children. Her works include picture books, biographies, as well as many non-fiction titles about animals, sports, insects, plants, and various science topics. One of her favorite parts of the writing process is researching and learning about new topics. Ms. Slade lives near Chicago with her husband, Mike, two children, and their tiny dog, Corduroy. Visit Suzanne's website at <http://www.suzanneslade.com/>.

Joan Waites has been a freelance illustrator for the past 18 years. She received a Bachelor of Science degree from DeSales University in 1982. Employment followed for 15 years as a neo-natal intensive care nurse in Philadelphia and Washington DC, while she simultaneously returned to college to study illustration and launch her freelance career. In addition to What's New at the Zoo? and its sequel, What's the Difference?, Joan has illustrated nearly 40 books for the educational and trade marketplace. She is also an adjunct faculty member of The Corcoran Museum School of Art and Design in Washington, DC, where she teaches various children's classes for the college's "Aspiring Artists" program.
